

HOSTAGE US

Effective Responses to Kidnapping: Best practices in family support and hostage reintegration

Wednesday, March 29, 2017 – Goldman Sachs, 200 West St, New York

Private sector organizations: $750 ($600 ISMA and ASIS International CSO Roundtable members)

Non-profit organizations / government: $600 ($480 INSSA members)

08.30-09.00	Coffee and registration
09.00-09.10	Welcome from our hosts	Ken Damstrom, Goldman Sachs
09.10-09.20	Introduction to the day and Hostage US	Rachel Briggs OBE, Hostage US
09.20-10.00	Overview of latest kidnapping trends	George Taylor, iJet
10.00-10.45	Reflections on family experiences of a kidnapping	Kristen Mulvihill
10.45-11.00	Coffee break
11.00-11.30	Duty of care	Lydia Lin, White & Case LLP
11.30-12.15	Handling the media and social media during a kidnapping	Eric Lebson, The Crumpton Group
12.15-13.00	The response of the US Government	Jeff Dubel, Acting Director, Hostage Recovery Fusion Cell Julia Neshewit, Acting Special Presidential Envoy for Hostage Affairs
13.00-13.45	Lunch
13.45-14.30	Reflections from a former hostage on the challenges of captivity and post-release reintegration to work	David Rohde, Reuters
14.30-15.15	Organizational responses to kidnapping – case study from the New York Times	David McCraw, Assistant General Counsel, The New York Times
15.15-15.30	Coffee break
15.30-16.30	Reintegration challenges for returning hostages and how organizations can assist	Tim Phillips, CEO, Phillips & Co Rachel Briggs OBE, Hostage US
16.30-16.45	Conclusions, close and depart	